MUSEUMS

Anglo Boer War museum

The Anglo-Boer War of the year 1899-1902 occupies a very vital part in world history. It left a great impact on the minds of people. This particular museum mainly provides the background that led to the outbreak of this war. The Bloemfontein Boer War Museum, through its art galleries and pictures, reflects the scenario of the whole war. There are many people who have a great interest to know about this war.

Location: Monument Road

Timings: 8:00 AM - 4:30 AM

Oliewenhuis Arts Museum

The Bloemfontein Art Museum is also an excellent place for art and photos. There are ample spaces in the entire premises of the museum. People can spend time by doing a picnic or other activities. Even kids can freely play in the open area. It is an art museum. One who loves art and painting can come and visit this museum.

Location: 16 Harry Smith Street

Timings: 8:00 AM – 5:00 PM

The National Museum

This museum preserves the excavated fossils of many items that are almost extinct in the present time. A lot of information can be gathered from this place. Most of the archaeological items are preserved here.

Location: 36 Aliwal Street

Timings: 8:00 AM – 5:00 PM

The Naval Hill Planetarium

This planetarium conducts regular shows on various types of the latest technological developments and inventions. The shows are held at a certain time. It is best to make prior bookings before coming to this place. Most of the shows are held for one hour.

Most of the shows are shown in digital mode.

Location: 6 Van Vuuren Avenue | off Union Ave

Bloemfontein Armour museum

Many things can be observed in the Bloemfontein Armour Museum. There are ancient tanks and war guns that are preserved in the museum.

Location: Frans Steynberg Street

Timings: 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM

National Afrikaans Literature Museum

This museum preserves the ancient culture of Africa in a wonderful manner. There are ample books and manuscripts that writers wrote during the early days. There are many books that are very interesting. You can have a good time in this museum by reading and going through numerous books. It has conserved the heritage of the ancient language in an amazing way.

Location: 40 Miriam Makeba Street | Corner of Miriam Makeba and the President Brand streets

Free State National Botanical Garden

The Free State National Botanical Garden, on the outskirts of Bloemfontein, sits perfectly between a valley and the dolerite hills. Enjoy the tall grassland or the woodlands that are dominated by the wild olive and karee trees. The botanical gardens are home to about 400 species of plants, mostly from the Free State, Northern Cape, and Lesotho areas. The natural areas of the Garden are a haven for wildlife, including 144 bird species, 54 reptile species, and about 32 mammal species. Some of which can be observed on a regular basis. Spend time hiking or relaxing on the manicured lawns, and fall asleep in the warmth of the sun.

ELECTRICITY

For South Africa, there are four associated plug types, types C, D, M and N. Plug type C is the plug which has two round pins, plug type D is the plug which has three round pins in a triangular pattern and plug types M and N both have three round pins. South Africa operates on a 230V supply voltage and 50Hz. It will be in your best interest to plan ahead and bring an adaptor with. For more information, you can visit the following website:
<https://www.power-plugs-sockets.com/south-africa/>

FIRST AID AND MEDICAL CARE

There is a dedicated room for first aid on the UFS campus. The UFS is also within 2km from the Medi Clinic Hospital.

Delegates are reminded to bring any medication they may need. In the event of an emergency, please call 10111 immediately.

MONEY EXCHANGE

South Africa's currency is the rand (R), divided into 100 cents. The notes are R10, R20, R50, R100 and R200; the coins are R1, R2 and R5, and five, 10, 20 and 50 cents. Transactions are often rounded up or down by a few cents. Cash is readily exchanged at banks and foreign exchange bureaus in the big cities or the OR Tambo airport.

The nearest exchange bureau is located at the Mimosa Mall.

Given that Bloemfontein is a smaller town, opportunities to exchange money are limited. ATMs are available on the UFS campus. Banking hours are from 9:00-15:30 on Mondays to Fridays. On Saturdays, banks are open from 9:00-12:30. Banks are closed on Sundays.

Debit or credit cards can be used at hotels, shops and businesses. However, please remember, if you plan to use a credit card in South Africa, contact your bank before leaving home and inform them of your travel plans to avoid having your purchases declined automatically.

When shopping at small or informal craft markets, it is best to use cash.

There are ATM's available on the UFS campus.

Always take care of your belongings and ensure that you keep your money in a safe place. Please take note of your surroundings before withdrawing money. Don't trust any strangers when withdrawing money.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

It is strongly recommended that participants take out their own general travel insurance. It is suggested that the insurance policy covers loss of fees/deposit, airfares, accommodation charges, medical expenses, loss or damage to personal property and repatriation expenses.

The Conference Organising Committee and Conference Secretariat do not take responsibility for any delegate failing to insure their travel.

WEATHER

Chilly weather lingers in July. Despite the cold temperatures, low chances of snowfall persist, with the probability at only 0.1%. Sunny days remain a key characteristic of July.

Bloemfontein marks the onset of July with an average high temperature of 16.5°C. Bloemfontein observes a substantial disparity between daytime high and the average low temperature of 1.3°C during July nights.
